

AU Summer Series for Seminarians

This virtual education series is designed for seminarians to gain a deeper understanding of religious freedom and church-state separation. Participants will be offered the opportunity to attend four individual training sessions that focus on the historical, legal, and practical ways to engage in advocacy work on religious freedom issues.

Tuesday, June 8, 4 PM ET

Understanding Religious Freedom: Embracing the Many Voices

Speakers:

Rachel Laser, President and CEO, Americans United for Separation of Church and State
Charles Watson, Jr., Director of Education, Baptist Joint Committee for Religious Liberty
Kiran Kaur Gill, Executive Director, SALDEF (Sikh American Legal Defense and Education Fund)

Tuesday, June 15, 4 PM ET

What's at Stake for Church-State Separation?

Speaker:

Maggie Garrett, Vice President of Public Policy, Americans United for Separation of Church and State

Tuesday, June 22, 4 PM ET

Religious Freedom Violations - What Are They? How To Report Them?

Speaker:

Ian Smith, Staff Attorney, Americans United for Separation of Church and State

Tuesday, June 29, 4 PM ET

Next Steps: Become an Advocate!

Speaker:

Sarah Gillooly, Vice President of Outreach and Engagement, Americans United for Separation of Church and State

Register at au.org/summerseries

Questions or comments? Contact Sabrina Dent at dent@au.org

AU.ORG